Germany

March 21st – 24th, 2024

The AMI Adolescent Introductory Workshop is a 4-day workshop providing foundational Montessori theory and methodology for understanding the work with adolescents (12-18 years). Lecture topics focus on describing the developmental needs of the adolescent and the components of an adolescent program, including the prepared environment, the role of the adult, and the plan of study and work.

The course provides a vision of a Montessori adolescent community. Participants will have received information regarding the key elements of an engaging adolescent environment.

Participants will receive an AMI certification upon completion of the workshop.

Lodging and Meals:

The possibility to stay at the school is offered. We ask that participants stay onsite as well as share meals together in order to briefly experience the community life the adolescents share. Meals will be provided by the adolescents during the four days. Please contact hausderjugend@montessori-mkk.de for more information, to book accommodation as well as to pay for the meals.

I agree that my first name, last name, e-mail address and dietary restrictions will be passed on to the Adolescent Community of the Freie Montessori Schule Main-Kinzig-Kreis. This information will be used for further planning and contacting and will be used exclusively for these reasons.
